THETRIALCONTINUES

The Evidence Unchanged, the Testimony Complete, the Verdict

Mammoth Clothing House, 238 Main St.,

SELLS FINE CLOTHING ONLY!

THE WORLD CONTINUALLY PROGRESSING! For if this week we hear of some new device or invention that seeems wonderful, next week we hear of something that totally eclipses it. If the past week has discovered some vast improvement, the coming one will produce still greater, that will throw the other completely in the shade. THE SECRET OF THE

Mammoth Clothing House, 238 Main,

As divulged by a leaf from our ledger, shows that the sales of last week closed the largest week's trade we have ever done. From Monday morning until Saturday evening there was no end to the rush. The receipts were gratifying to us, and now we want each succeeding week up to the first of January to eclipse the preceding one, and we are determined it shall be so.

COMPARISON

Is the best, if not the only measure of value, and those who use it seldom pay more for an ordinary article than they should, while those who do not have often to pay dearly for their carelessness. After a careful comparison you will be satisfied that our prices are lower, styles are better, assertment more complete, and the best place to buy, as everything is sold for what it really is and for the least money that such an article can be had for, with a guarantee of satisfaction. Free to All—No Arguments Sequired.—Having been in business for the prot fifteen years, and being noted for our styles, we of course have a host of imitators. The same thing may be said of our various novelties of advertising. In sact, it is our des re to constantly present something new, and while we do so at considerable expense, yet all are free to benefit by our enterprise, because by so doing they tay a compliment to our judgement and ACKNOWLEDGE US THE LEADER and themselves as braging imitators. One thing aloue they have not the power to imitate, and that is our EEDINGLY LOW PRICES. Pay us a visit of inspection and then decide upon ACTUAL MERITS. Determined to please, we wish it distinctly understand that when we advertise a price we change no more, and that when we claim to have Merchant Tailors Mights and Fine Clothing we do not mean "READY-MADE TRASH." A visit of inspection will cost nothing and prove what we claim, as alessmen are under stirct orders rather not to satisfy. COUNTRY ORDERS will have our careful attention. Goods sent C. O. D., with privilege of examination. By N.B.—MR LEHMAN has connected himself with the above firm.
